New CD from Julia Wade – Silk Road

New York, NY, December 4, 2012 -- This month marks the release of yet another Inspirational song set from International favorite and Watchfire Music best-selling artist, Julia Wade. Produced and orchestrated by award-winning producer and composer, Peter Link, the album takes you on an Inspirational Journey Across Planet Earth. Silk Road, Julia's 7th Album, fittingly marks her arrival at the threshold of a new evolution in her music. Her departure from her past carries forth her commitment to inspire through song, not only on a sacred level, but also with an in-depth look at the issues of our world at large and the individual human condition.

The CD contains songs that will continue to inspire her growing fan base with fresh new looks at spiritual reach through songs like Link's Thinking Made It So and Julie Gold's (From A Distance) When He Walks With Me, but it also ventures into new territory dealing with the issues of our world today. For the first time she now tries her hand at lyric writing and scores instantly with her own thoughts on What Peace Looks Like from the perspective of three children of the world from Uganda, the Sudan, and the ghettos of Kingston, Jamaica. The title song, Silk Road, promises a comparison of the ancient Silk Roads spanning China, Tibet and Europe with the modern day impact of the Internet.

A remake of the Legrand/Bergman's On My Way To You is joined by several other love songs penned by producer, Peter Link to round out the album's insights into the human condition,

The style of the music is a fusion of elegant Pop stylings
